"The Canyons Course at the Oasis Golf Club is a great test of golf for all levels of golfers. The course is built in the canyons of North Mesquite and laid out perfectly with what nature has already designed. With its wide fairways, seven lakes, smooth Bermuda greens and variety of challenging holes, the Canyons course is a refreshing change of pace.

• Scott Sullivan, General Manager, Oasis Golf Club

"This beautiful course flows through the Mesquite wetlands offering a scenic experience that is as special as the course is playable. Thirteen of the 18 holes play either over or around water hazards that accent the course."

• Randy Black, Chief Executive Officer, Black Gaming

"The Chase is a Jack Nicklaus designed Signature course playing from 5,349 yards to a whopping 7,471 from the tips. Eleven lakes come into play on the course that many consider to be one of Nicklaus' finest desert creations. The pure golf experience is enhanced by the club's caddie program."

The Chase
COYOTE SPRINGS

• Todd Michaelsen, Head Professional, The Chase at Coyote Springs

"Coral Canyon works its way around some of the area's natural land formations that give the course its character and beauty. This championship course is a mix of risk/reward holes with fast, true greens. Bring your whole set, you'll need every club in your bag."

"At 6,550 yards, Falcon Ridge (Par 71) is a desert layout with spectacular elevation changes, numerous water hazards and high mesa views. With multiple tee boxes, the course is a challenge while offering an enjoyable round of golf."

• Brian Wursten, Director of Golf, Falcon Ridge Golf Course

"The Arnold Palmer designed Palmer Course offers emerald green fairways cradled in isolated canyons, four unique signature holes and numerous hazards created by Mother Nature. The Palmer Course is an excellent test of golf while playable for all levels of golfers."

• Scott Sullivan, General Manager, Oasis Golf Club

"The Palms course is a wonderful blend of two very diverse nines. The gentle rolling front nine offers expansive fairways and large undulating greens. The back nine features elevated tee boxes and breathtaking views."

• Randy Black, Chief Executive Officer, Black Gaming

"The Championship Course at Sand Hollow is as visually stunning as it is challenging. The course moves in and among the distinctive red rock outcroppings of Southern Utah. With wide sweeping fairways, stunning views and lush desert landscape this course has received high rankings from many of the national golf publications."

• Colby Cowan, Head Professional, Sand Hollow Resort
